

Symposium: 'Challenges in Non-Profit Law since the 1990s'

Event Space, School of Law and Social Justice Building, University of Liverpool

Tuesday 18 June 2024

09:00 – 09:30

- Coffee and Pastries / Registration.

09:30 – 09:45

- Welcome and Introductory Remarks

09:45 – 10:30

- Conversation between Matthew Harding (University of Melbourne) and Debra Morris (University of Liverpool) on Challenges in Non-Profit Law across their careers.

10:45 – 12:15: Panel 1

- Matthew Turnour (Neumann & Turnour Lawyers, Brisbane): 'Australian Regulatory Responses since 1990 – focus on the regulator'.
- Jennifer Sigafos (University of Liverpool): 'Assessing the Charity Commission's regulation of serious charitable misconduct'.
- Ian Murray (University of Western Australia) – 'Extending the Contract Culture (Government Grants to Philanthropic Funding)'.

LUNCH (12:15 – 13:00)

13:00 – 14:30: Panel 2

- Oonagh Breen (Sutherland School of Law, University College Dublin): 'Future Directions in the Melding of Charities and Commercial Activity'.

- John Tribe (University of Liverpool): 'The charity patronage bargain (office holders)'
- Mark Sidel (University of Wisconsin-Madison): 'Disciplining Altruism, Disciplining Advocacy: The Rise of Regulatory Constraints on Volunteering in Comparative Perspective.'

TEA & COFFEE

15:00 – 16:45: Panel 3

- Alceste Santuari (University of Bologna): 'From voluntary organisation to social enterprises (incorporation)'
- Adam Parachin (Osgoode Hall Law School, York University, Canada) – 'identification of non-charitable activities (purposes / activities)'
- Matthew Shillito (University of Liverpool) and John Picton (University of Manchester): 'Charities and Technology (Fundraising)'.
- Warren Barr (University of Birmingham): 'The challenge of going green, charities and social housing'.

16:45 – 17:00

- Closing Remarks (Discussion of Edited Collection).

17:00 – 18:30

- Drinks Reception.

