

The Pandemic Treaty, International Law-Making and the Search for Equity post-Covid

Friday 5th July, 1:30-3:00pm

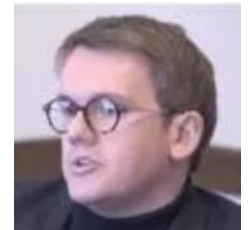

Seminar Room 5, University of Liverpool Management School & Online

Speakers:

Professor Gian Luca Burci, Visiting Professor of International Law at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva, will discuss the Amendment of the International Health Regulation and Pandemic Law-Making after Covid.

Dr Marc Eccleston-Turner, Senior Lecturer in Global Health Law at Kings College London, will discuss Pathogen Access and Benefit Sharing and the Search for "Equity" in the Pandemic Treaty.

Dr Sujitha Subramanian, Senior Lecturer in Law at the University of Liverpool, will discuss Intellectual Property, Equity and Access to Medicines in the Pandemic Treaty.

Co-Chairs:

Professors Amandine Garde (Law & NCD Unit)
and Kanstantsin Dzehtsiarou (ILHRU)

For the speakers full biographies and to register please visit the link below or scan the QR code.

