

Global Brain Health Clinical Exchange Platform

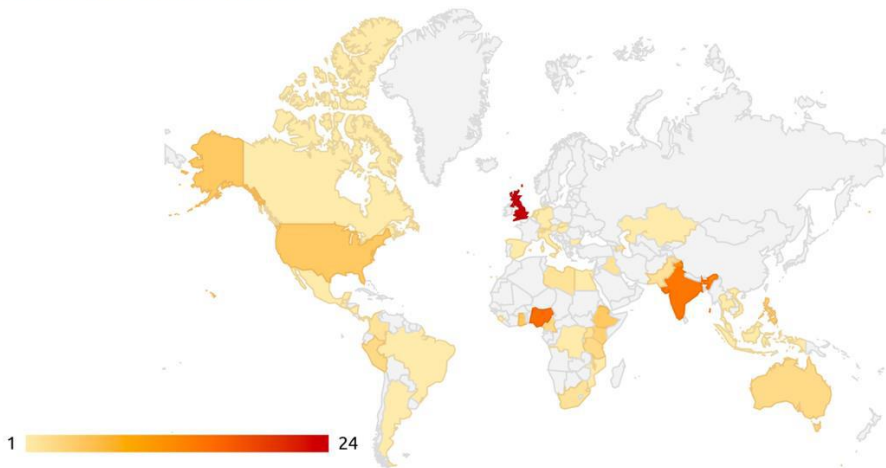

Details of number of participants and countries registered per workshop:

2021

November: 'Seizures in the Fields'...Using Public Health to Address Neurologic Illness

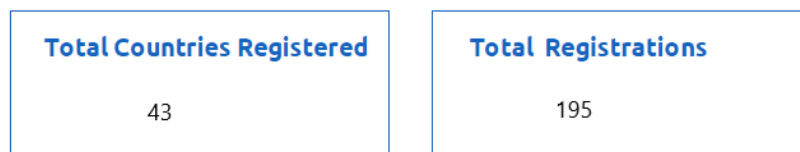

Registrations countries/regions

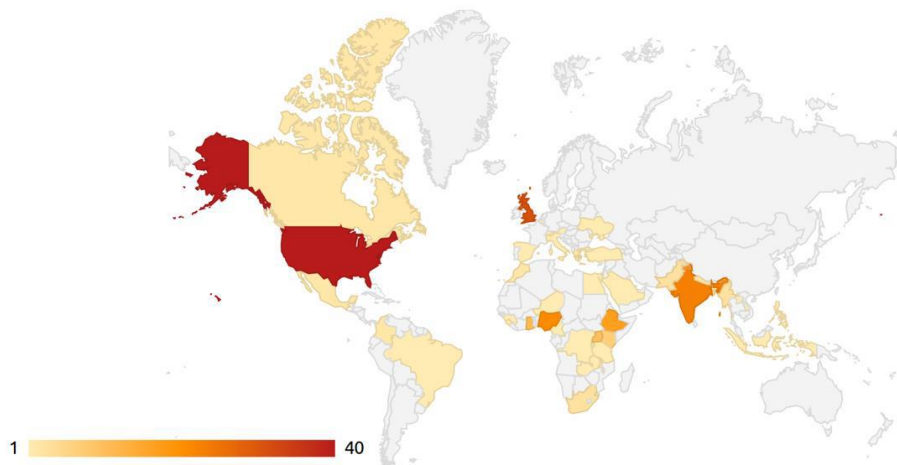

2022

January: Acute neurology in resource-limited settings: tackling clinical dilemmas using decision analysis

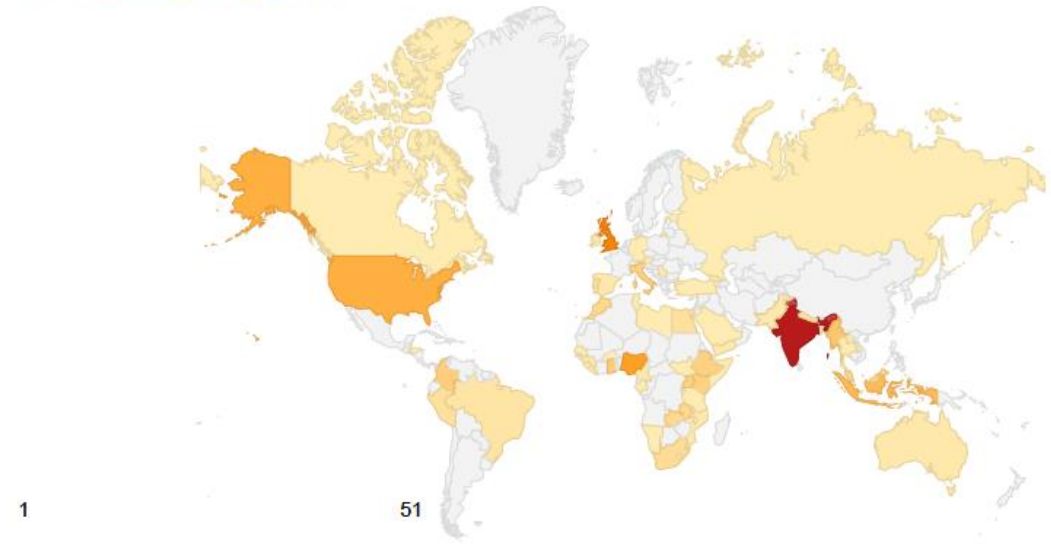

Registrations countries/regions

February: Coma - Approach to encephalopathy

Total Countries Registered	Total Registrations
63	290

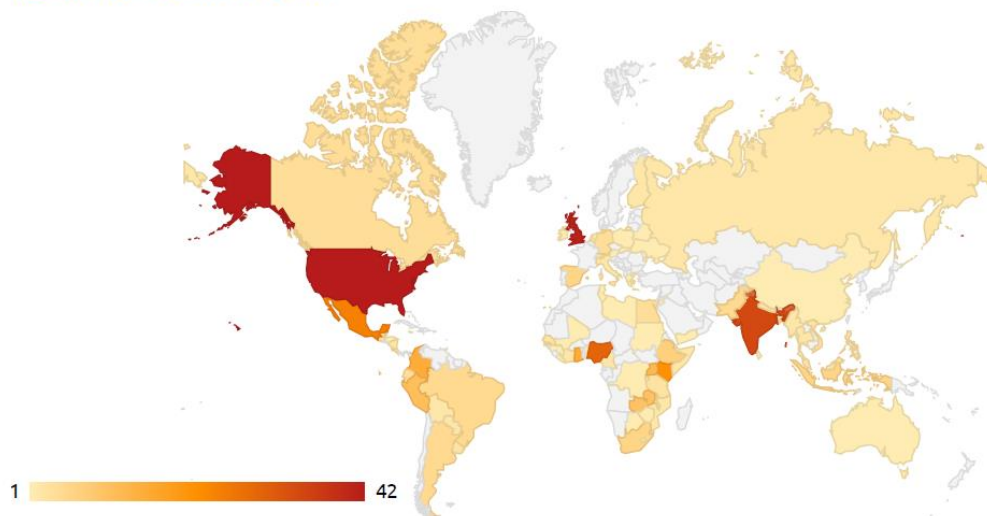

Registrations countries/regions

March: A focus on paediatric neurology

Total Countries Registered	Total Registered
80	410

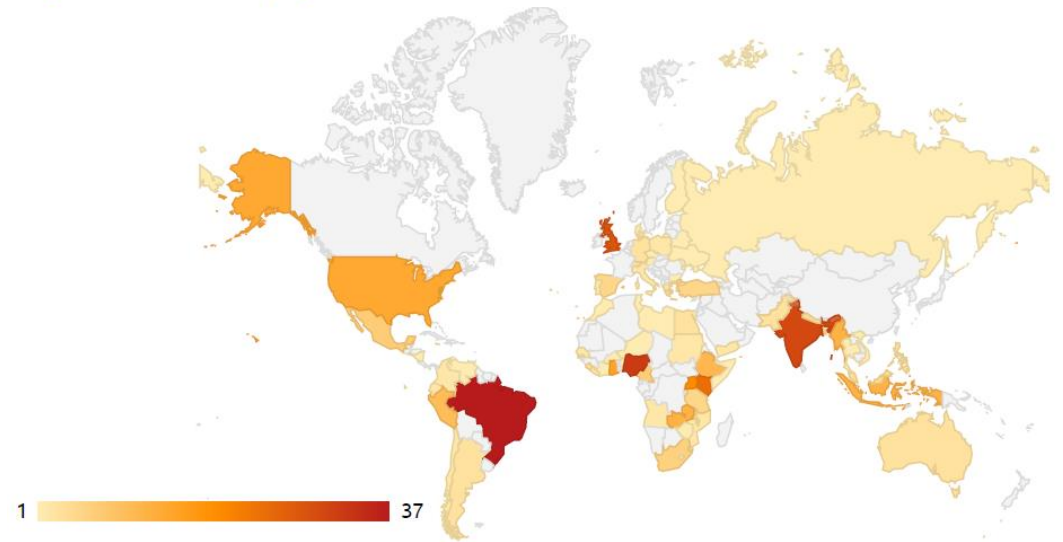

Registrations countries/regions

April: A focus on headache

Total Countries Registered 76	Total Registrations 393
---	-----------------------------------

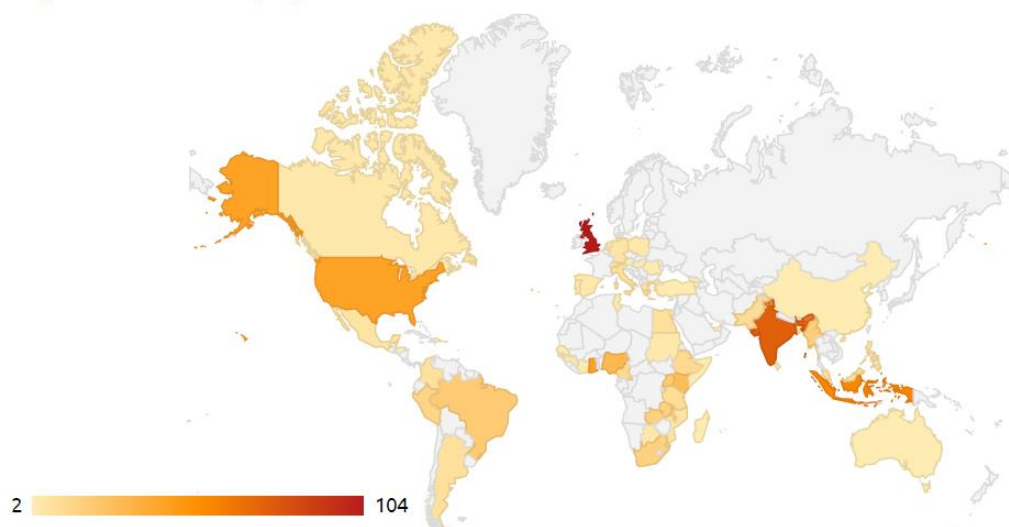

Registrations countries/regions

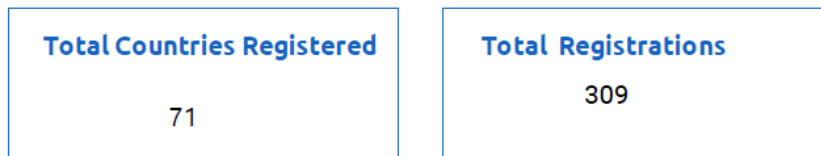

May: Neurological Infection Diseases: Focus on Diagnosis & Management of Brain Infections

Total Countries Registered 62	Total Registrations 353
---	-----------------------------------

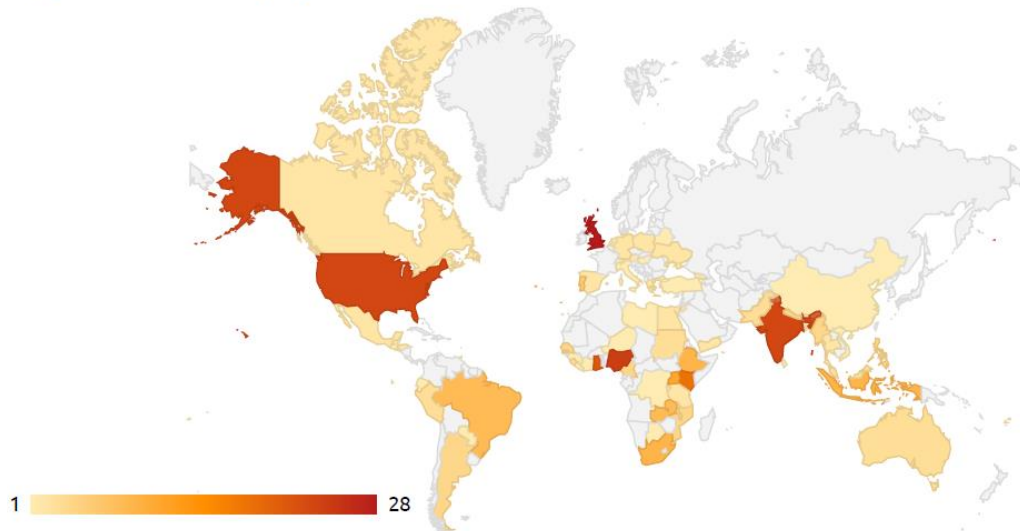

Registrations countries/regions

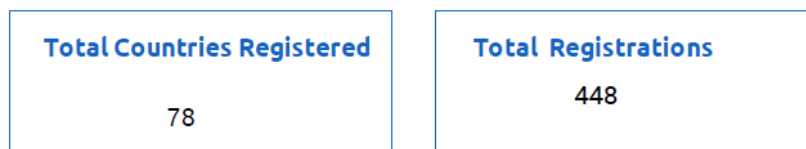

June: Critical care of the neurological system in COVID-19

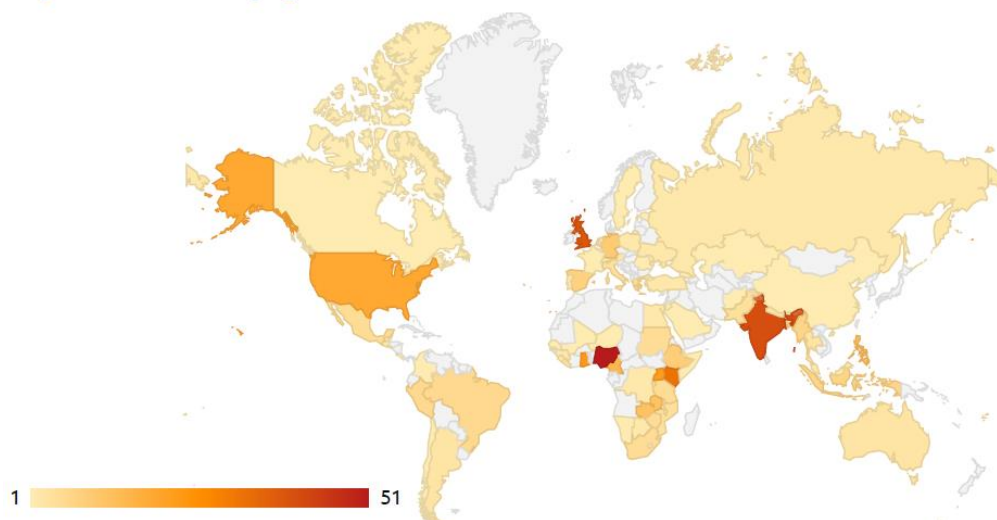

Registrations countries/regions

July: One Health and neurological disorders – an interdisciplinary multi-health approach

Registrations countries/regions

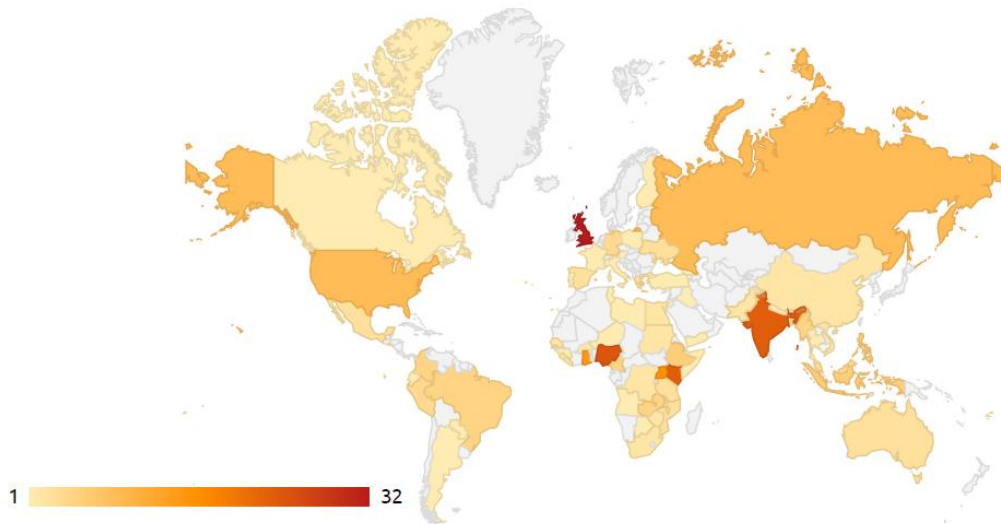

September: COVID-19, de novo seizures, and epilepsy

Total Countries Registered
73

Total Registrations
291

Registrations countries/regions

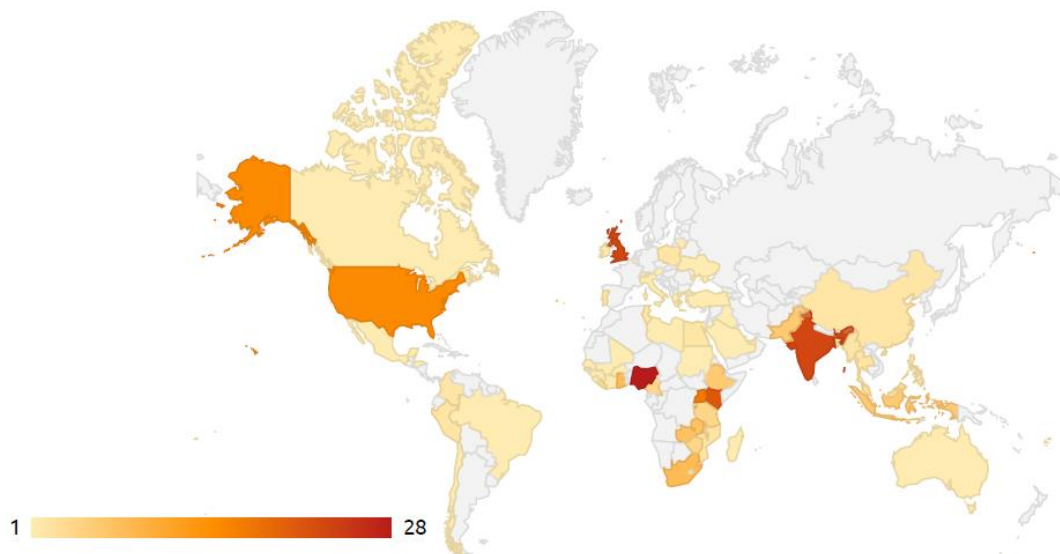

October: Movement disorder

Total Countries Registered
64

Total Registrations
274

Registrations countries/regions

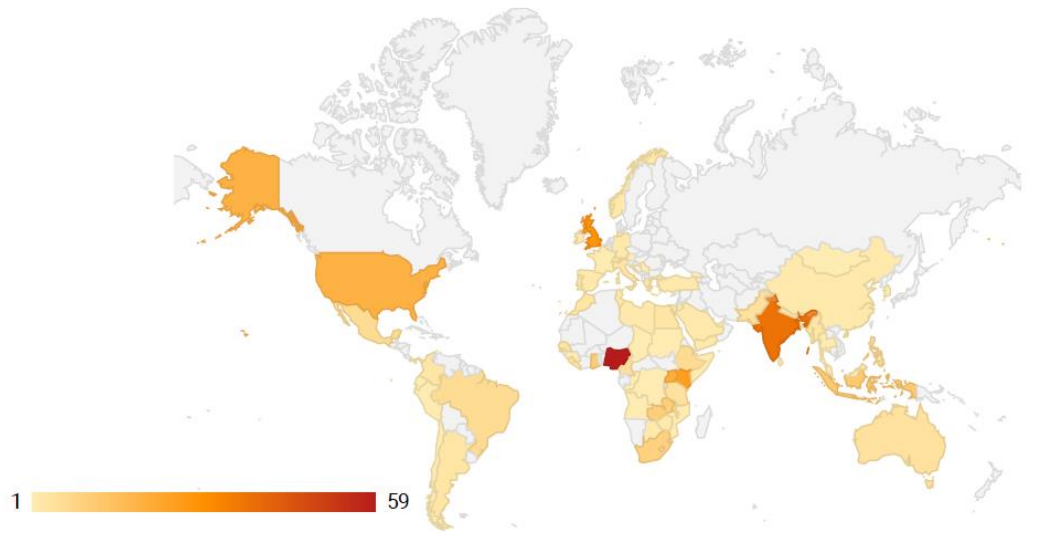

2023

February: Developing tools to deliver neurological Universal Health Coverage

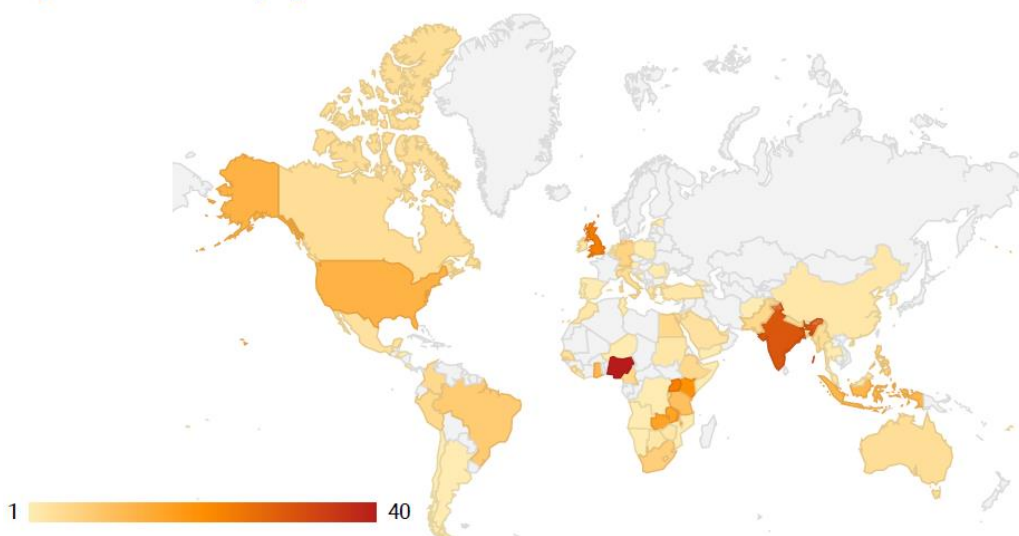

Registrations countries/regions

March: Implementing the World Health Organization's neurology revolution

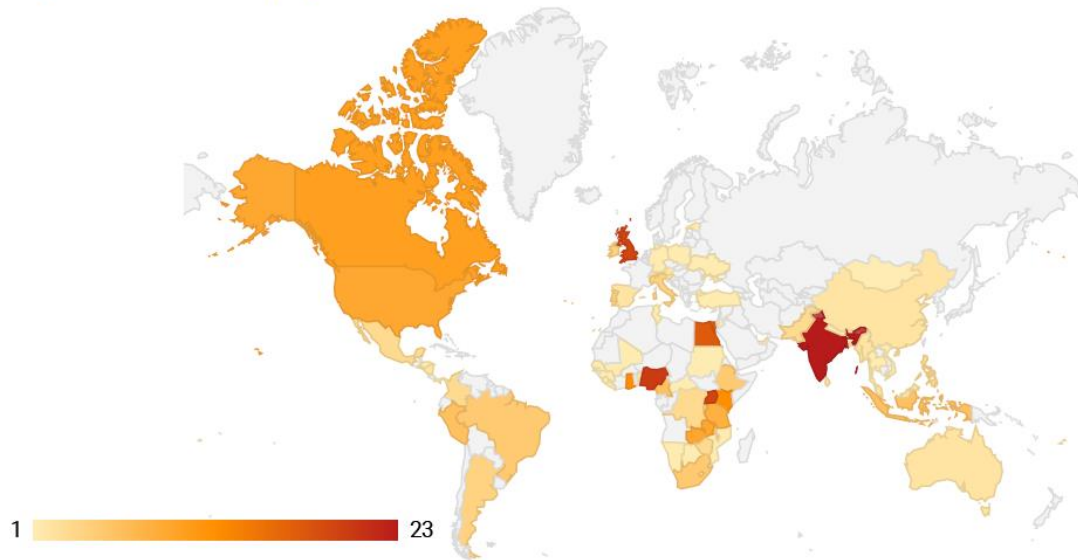

Registrations countries/regions

Early May: Promoting intersectoral action for brain health: a focus on dementia

Total Countries Registered	Total Registrations
73	297

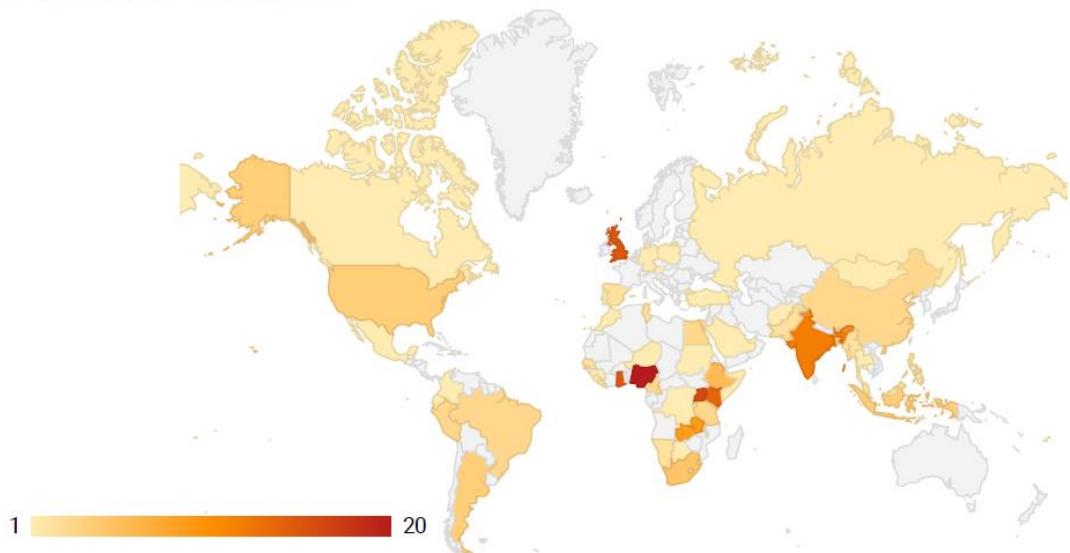

Registrations countries/regions

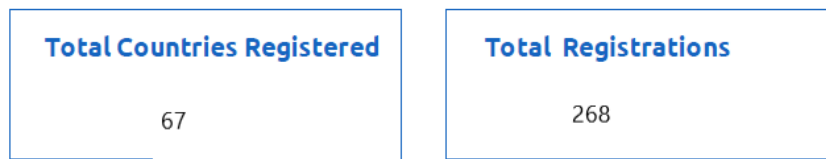

Late May: Building capacity in global neurology

Total Countries Registered	Total Registrations
59	199

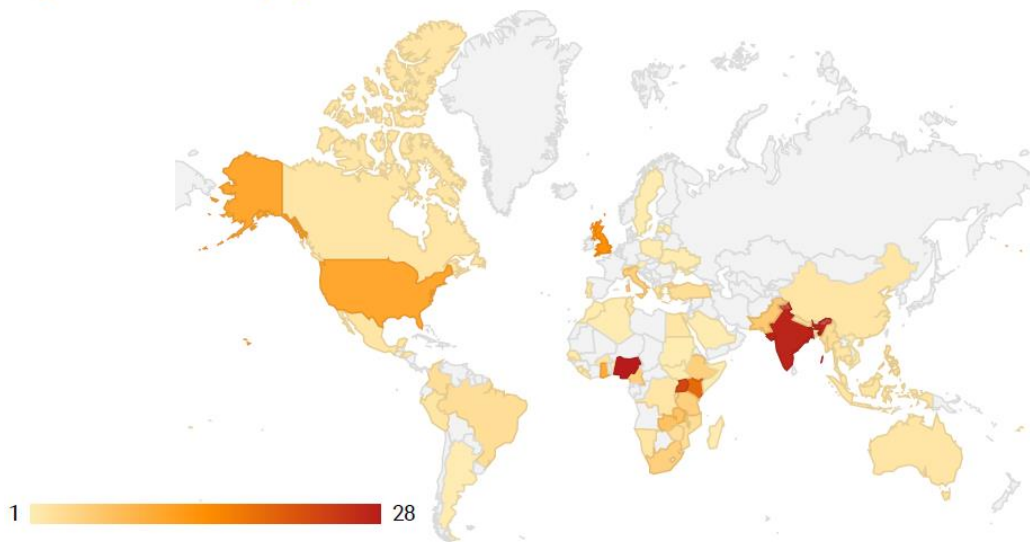

Registrations countries/regions

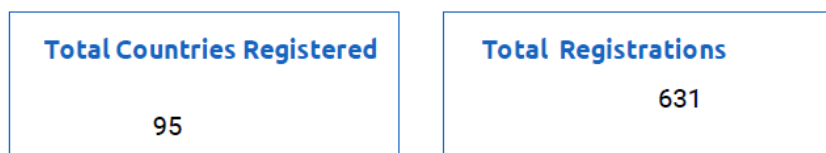

June: Implementing the World Health Organization's neurology revolution: challenges and opportunities in managing epilepsy

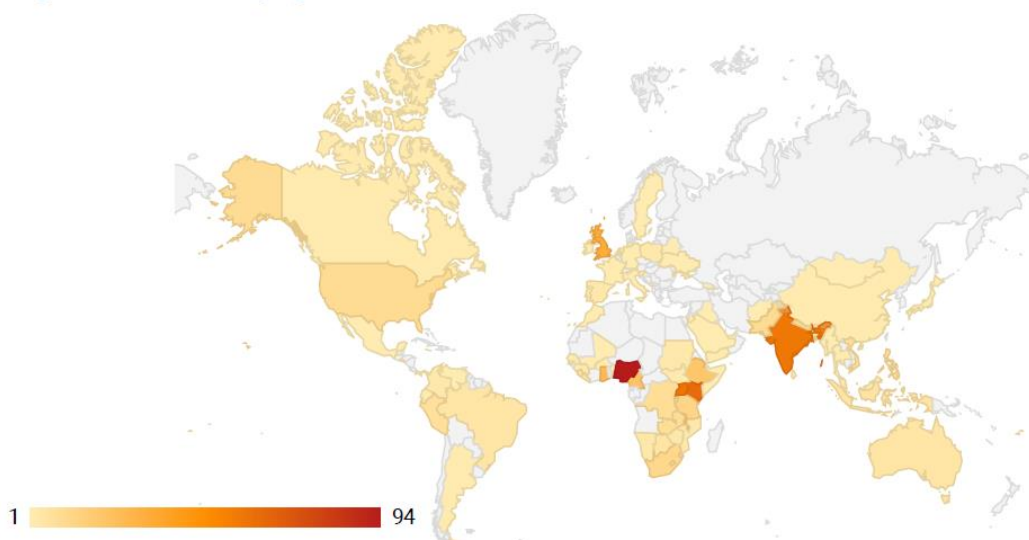

Registrations countries/regions

July: How to use patient and public involvement to improve global brain health

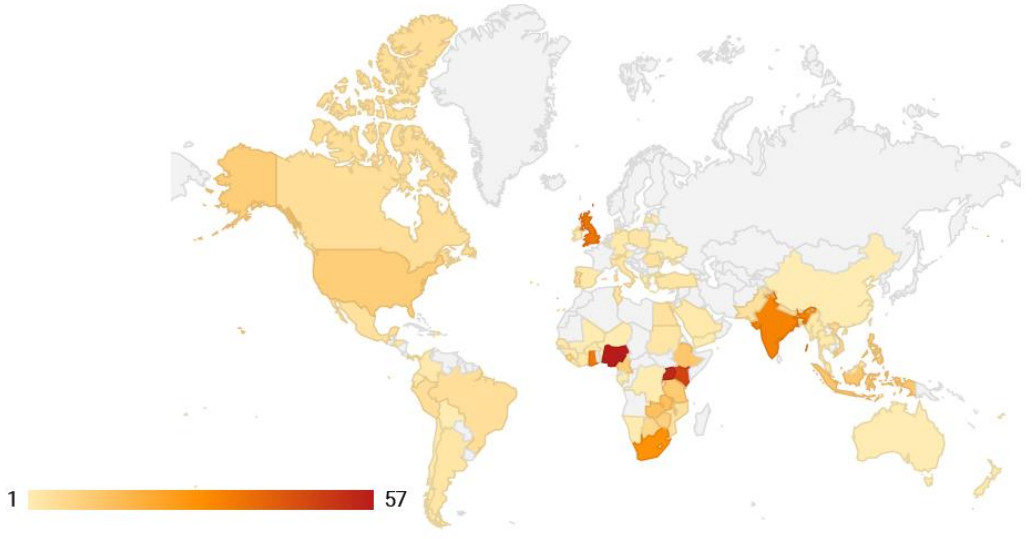

Registrations countries/regions

October: Paediatric Brain Infections

Total Countries Registered	Total Registrations
86	646

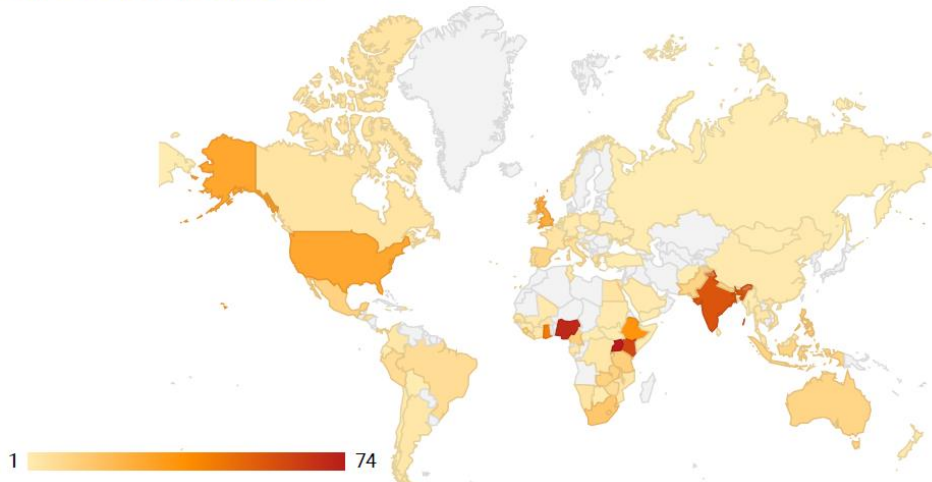

Registrations countries/regions

November: Neurosurgical Health for all: A realistic target or a wishful vision? Setting Priorities in Neurosurgical Care

Total Countries Registered	Total Registrations
92	732

Registrations countries/regions

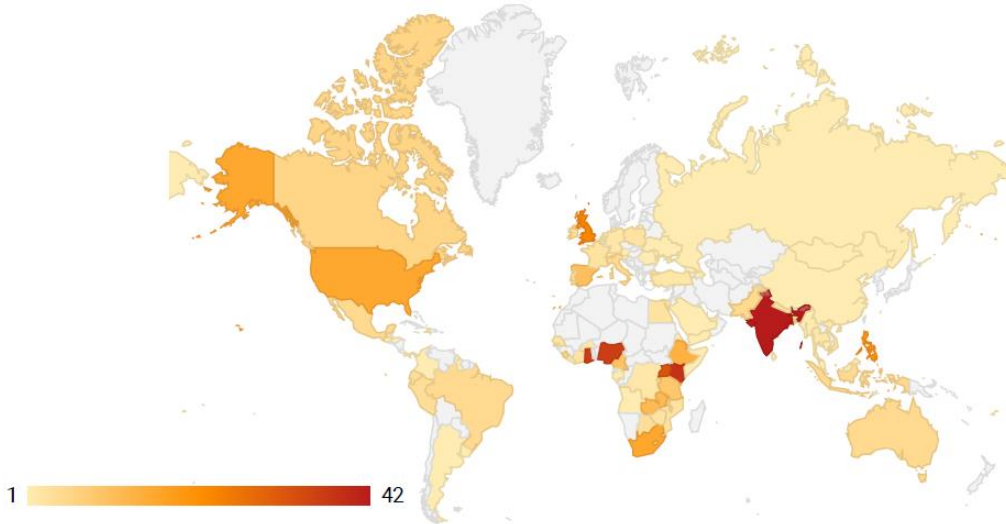

2024

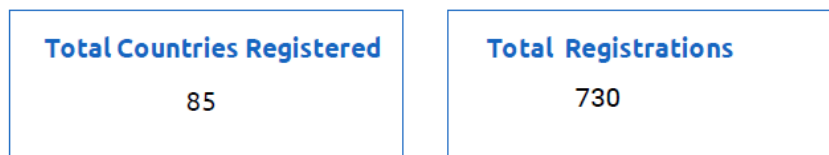

January: Opportunities in Global Brain Health with the World Federation of Neurology

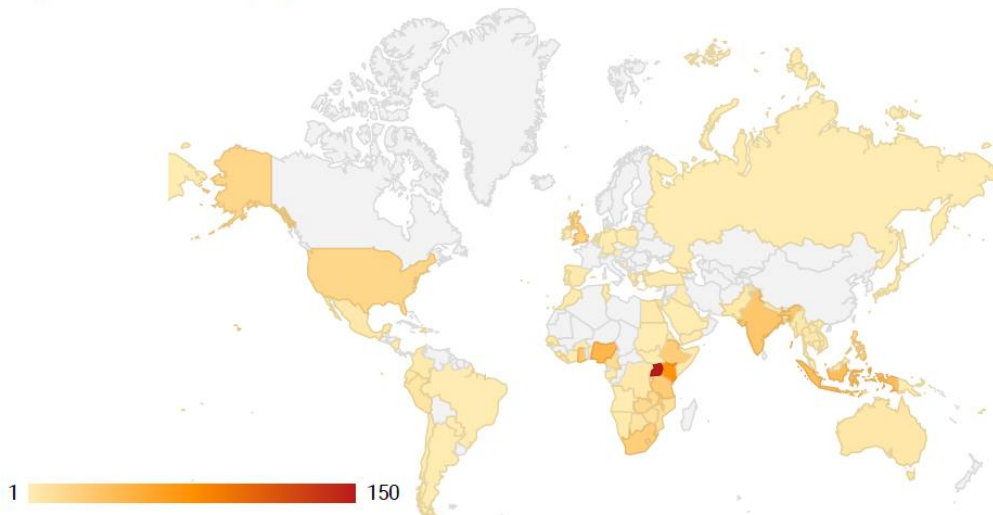

Registrations countries/regions

February: Clinical experiences from two decades of HIV related meningitis research in Uganda

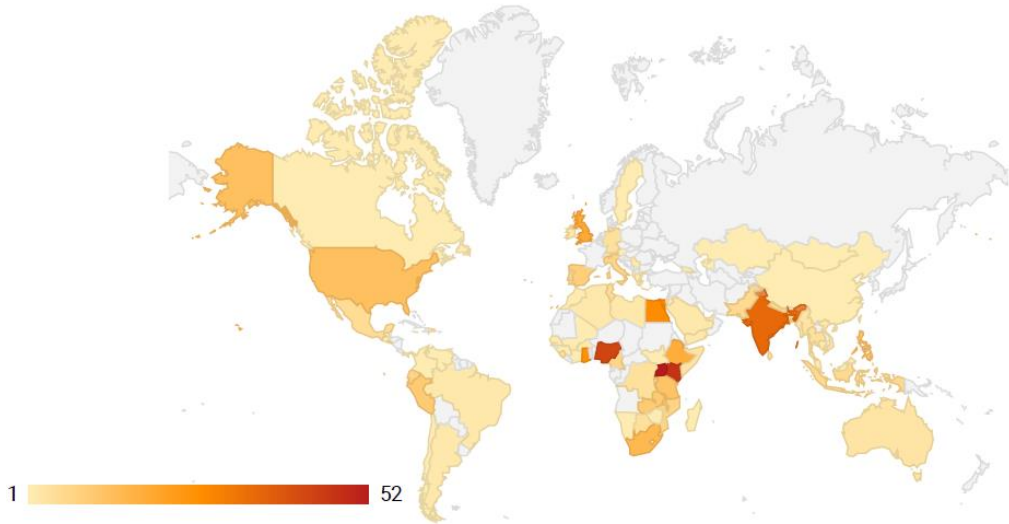

Registrations countries/regions

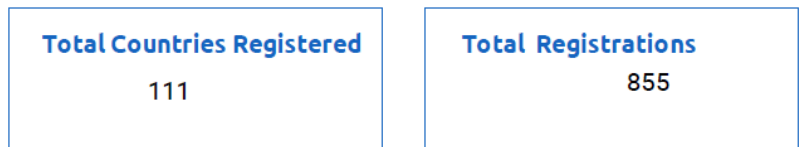

March: Using virtual technologies to improve training in global neurology

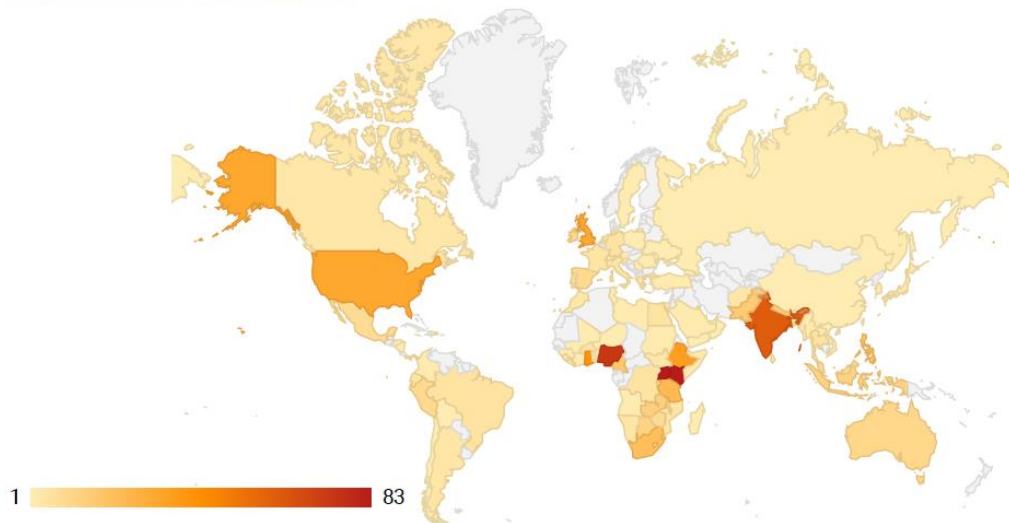

Registrations countries/regions

April: From research to policy: advocating for Brain Health

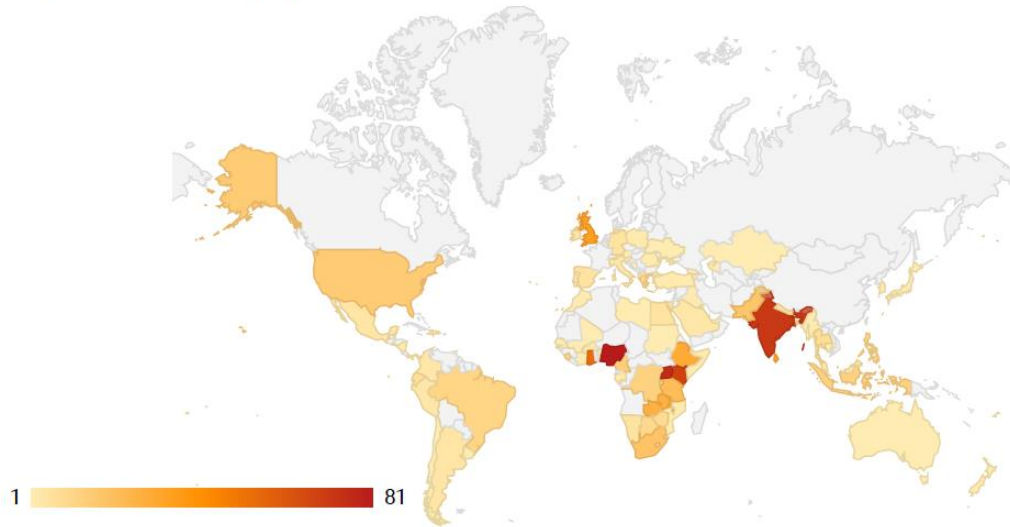

Registrations countries/regions

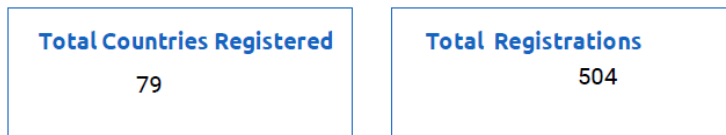

May: Microbiological Diagnosis of Brain Infection in LMICs: Challenges and Advances

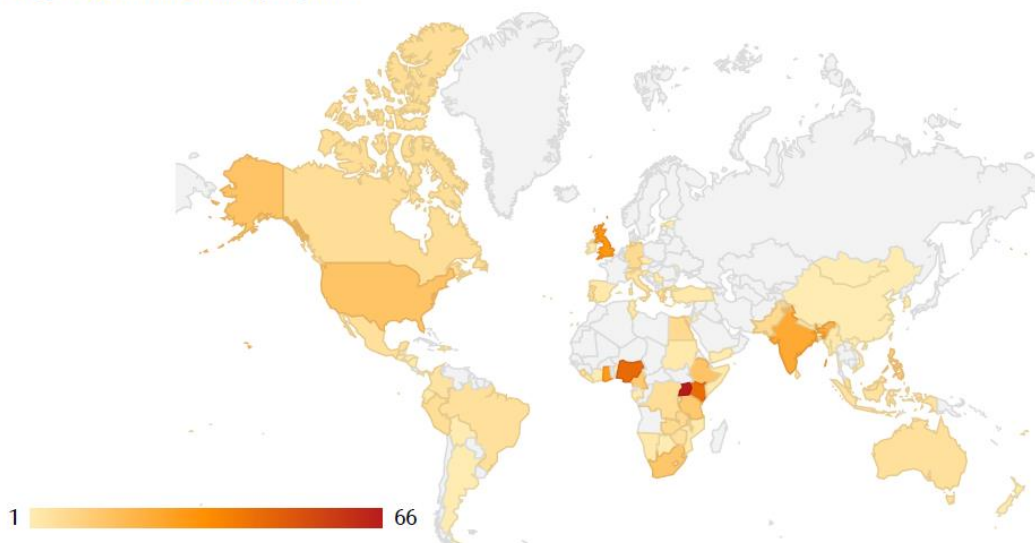

Registrations countries/regions

June: #DataSavesLives: Partnering with industry and shaping AIs to improve brain health

Registrations countries/regions

July: UK national guideline on management of encephalitis in adults and children: what have we learnt over the last decade?

Total Countries Registered

89

Total Registrations

545

Registrations countries/regions

